A NOTE FROM MICHAEL

Helping garden centres grow

This is where it all started over 40 years ago: supplying garden centres with carefully selected products for the garden. As a second-generation family business, we're proud that the values we started with still shape Woodlodge today.

For 2027, we've taken a fresh look at our collections and how we present them. You'll discover exciting new products alongside familiar favourites, with a greater spotlight on selected product families to help you explore our ranges in more depth.

What hasn't changed is what matters most: quality products, dependable nationwide delivery and the personal service and support our customers know they can rely on.

Thank you for being part of our journey. We hope you enjoy discovering Woodlodge 2027.

WHAT WE STAND FOR

Designed for the best (and worst) of British weather

Designed for the best (and worst) of British weather, our collections are made to last. From deep glazes and frost-proof materials to traditional techniques and skilled craftsmanship, quality is considered at every stage. The result is hardworking gardenware, designed to stand up to the elements season after season — without compromising on style.

HOW WE WORK

Service that works harder for you

Behind every Woodlodge product is the support that makes it simple to stock, display and sell. From reliable nationwide delivery to in-store merchandising, our service is designed to keep your shelves looking their best.

With four decades of experience working alongside garden centres, we understand the realities of garden retail. Our team is here with practical advice and hands-on support to help you get the most from your ranges.

Behind the scenes
The craft of terracotta

Our terracotta pots celebrate the natural beauty and timeless appeal of this traditional material. Handmade from natural clay by skilled makers using techniques refined over generations, each pot is carefully shaped, left to dry and fired at high temperatures to create its warm, earthy tones and distinctive finish.

Subtle variations in shape, colour and finish are a natural part of the making process, giving every pot its own individual character — so no two are exactly alike.

Rooted in traditional craftsmanship, these authentic garden pots bring natural warmth, character and enduring appeal to outdoor spaces.
